

Recreational facilities and open space pending development in public housing estates completed or redeveloped in phases in the past decade

(A) District recreational facilities or open space to be developed by the Government

Name of estate	Year of completion	Facility	Work Progress
Sau Mau Ping Estate	From 2001 for full completion by 2009	District Open Space (Sau Mau Ping Estate Phase 12)	Due to resource constraint, the Government is unable to accord priority to the development of this site. The Government will review the implementation programme for the site. No specific details at this stage. The Housing Department is considering the provision of a soccer pitch on part of the site in Phase 12 for use by local residents. Details are under consideration.
Lam Tin Redevelopment Programme (Kai Tin Estate, Ping Tin Estate and On Tin Estate)	From 1997 for full completion by 2009	Family Leisure Centre (Lam Tin Estate Phase 9)	Due to resource constraint, the Government is unable to accord priority to the implementation of this project. The Government will review the planned provision of a Family Leisure Centre. No details at this stage. The Housing Department is planning to put the site into temporary recreational use by providing facilities such as basketball court and landscaped area. Construction works are scheduled to commence in end 2005 for completion in 2006.
Kwai Chung Estate	From 1998 for full completion by 2005	District Open Space (Kwai Chung Estate Phase 2)	The Government is reviewing the use and programme for the development of the district open space. No specific details are available at this stage. Meanwhile, the Housing Authority is using the site as a temporary car park and market. After relocation of the temporary facilities by end 2005, the district open space site will be returned to the Government.

(B) Recreational facilities or open space to be developed by the Housing Authority

Name of estate	Year of completion	Facility	Work progress
Sau Mau Ping Estate	From 2001 for full completion by 2009	Local Open Space (Sau Mau Ping Estate Phase 16)	The Housing Department will provide various recreational facilities on the local open space site, including ball courts, children playground, activity areas for the elderly and parent-child corners. Construction works will commence in end 2005 for completion in 2009.
Lam Tin Redevelopment Programme (Kai Tin Estate, Ping Tin Estate and On Tin Estate)	From 1997 for full completion in 2009	Local Open Space (Lam Tin Estate Phase 10)	The Housing Department plans to provide recreational facilities such as gateball courts and pebble walking trails on the local open space site. Construction works will commence in end 2005 for completion in 2006.
Ma Hang Estate	2000	Pot-plant and Bonsai Garden	The Housing Department is discussing with the parties concerned on the development of the site. No specific details at this stage.